

NEW SOUTH WALES
BAR ASSOCIATION

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION IN PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT COMMITTEES

The New South Wales Bar Association invites expressions of interest from non-lawyers to serve in an honorary capacity as a community member of one of the Association's Professional Conduct Committees.

The Committees undertake a variety of work including the investigation of complaints (referred by the Legal Services Commissioner) against barristers and provide recommendations to the Bar Council. The Committees meet every three weeks on weekdays at 5.00 pm in the City.

Applications in writing, giving brief biographical details, should be submitted by Friday 16 June 2017 to: Peter Smith, Deputy Director, Professional Conduct, The New South Wales Bar Association, Selborne Chambers, B/174 Phillip Street, Sydney NSW 2000, or emailed to pcd@nswbar.asn.au
