NSW Bar Association Open Day for Female Law Students

Friday, 18th August 2017

The NSW Bar Association Diversity & Equality Committee is pleased to host an Open Day for Female Law Students on Friday, 18 August 2017.

The Open Day provides a wonderful opportunity for female law students to meet successful women barristers and observe them at work in chambers and at Court.

The Open Day is planned for a Friday, as it is generally a busy motions and directions day in the Superior Courts. Students will also spend some time with women judges of the Supreme Court, the Federal Court and other Courts in the vicinity of Queens Square.

The proposed timetable for the day is as follows:

8:45 am	Arrive at the NSW Bar Association (NSW Bar Association Common Room)
9:00 – 9:15 am	Welcome and introduction by Arthur Moses SC, President of the NSW Bar Association
9:15 – 9:25 am	Welcome by Kate Eastman SC, Chair of the NSW Bar Association Diversity & Equality Committee
9:25 – 9:30 am	Allocate student groups to volunteer barristers
9:30 am – 12:30 pm	Volunteer barristers take students to chambers/court/coffee
12:30 – 1:30 pm	Lunch (NSW Bar Association Common Room)

If you are considering a career at the Bar or are interested in advocacy, this is an invaluable opportunity to meet women barristers and judges to discover what life at the Bar is really like. Please complete the online registration form, which is available at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/8D2WHCN>, and submit it by 7 August 2017.
