Lord Justice David Richards is a Lord Justice of the Court of Appeal of England and Wales. He was appointed a High Court Judge (Chancery Division) in 2003 and a chairman of the Competition Appeal Tribunal in 2004. He was chairman of the Insolvency Rules Committee from 2005 to 2015 and is co-chair of the Judicial Committee of the International Insolvency Institute. He was appointed as a Lord Justice of Appeal in 2015.

John Lehane made a significant contribution to the study and practice of law in Australia. He was a leading banking law partner of Allen Allen & Hemsley and, ultimately, chairman. In 1995, he was appointed to the Federal Court of Australia, where he served with distinction until 2001. John Lehane lectured in law at the University of Sydney for many years and co-authored Australia's leading text on equity.
