

TRAINING – CRIMINAL JUSTICE REFORMS

In October 2017 the NSW Government passed a range of legislation to reform the criminal justice system. The changes are substantial and include:

1. Encouraging early appropriate guilty pleas ('EAGP')
2. Sentencing reforms
3. Parole reforms
4. Reforms to the management of high risk sex and violent offenders

We will be providing one day of free training to legal practitioners appearing for defendants across NSW on the following dates:

DATE	LOCATION
12 March	Burwood
13 March	Blacktown
15 March	Tamworth
16 March	Parramatta
19 March	Liverpool; Dubbo
21 March	Wollongong
23 March	Nowra
26 March	Penrith
28 March	Coffs Harbour
4 April	Central Sydney
5 April	Wagga Wagga
6 April	Central Sydney; Parramatta
9 April	Central Sydney
11 April	Orange
12 April	Campbelltown
13 April	Central Sydney; Parramatta
16 April	Sutherland
19 April	Central Sydney
20 April	Lismore
23 April	Newcastle
24 April	Central Sydney
26 April	Gosford
27 April	Port Macquarie
30 April	Central Sydney
2 May	Moree
4 May	Central Sydney
7 May	Central Sydney
17 May	Albury

Registration is essential and places are strictly limited. These sessions are now available for registration on the Legal Aid NSW Learning Management System via this link. If you wish to attend, please attend the website, search for "EAGP" and register as soon as possible as places are capped for each session.

Please contact us at eagpreform@legalaid.nsw.gov.au if you have any questions about the training.