INVITATION

Mauritius – The ICCA Congress and Growth in International Arbitration

The 23rd International Council for Commercial Arbitration (ICCA) Congress will be held in Mauritius from 8 to 11 May 2016. This marks the first time in ICCA's 50-year history that the Congress will gather in Africa and demonstrates recognition of the important role that international arbitration now plays across the African continent. With an emerging economy and quality infrastructure, Mauritius is growing in importance as a financial trade and global business hub.

Australian Centre for International Commercial Arbitration (ACICA) is delighted to invite you to an evening seminar held at the Australian Disputes Centre to explore the opportunities for Australian practitioners arising out of the ICCA Congress in Mauritius.

GUEST SPEAKERS:

Roger de Robillard Roger de Robillard, Barrister (Level 12, St James Centre, Sydney), Ambassador for ICCA 2016; Mauritius Board of Investment, Honorary Representative in Australia; Australia Africa Business Council, Director of International Relations: will examine the developing trade relationship between Africa and Australia and other key trading partners of Australia (including China), the current status of international arbitration in Mauritius and the opportunities for Australian practitioners to bring their expertise to bear in this area.

Dean of the African Heads of Mission in Canberra, His Excellency Mr Mohamed Mael -Ainin, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary for the Kingdom of Morocco: Africa's role in Australian foreign policy.

High Commissioner for Mauritius, His Excellency Patrick Cavalot: What Mauritius has to offer as a trade and business hub.
