About the Toongabbie Legal Centre Inc.

Toongabbie Legal Centre Inc. (TLC) is a not-for-profit community-based initiative helping those in need in the Toongabbie area, established 17 March 2007. After the Induction and Training of our first 45 volunteers held on 6 October, TLC's legal service commenced on 13 October 2007.

Over recent years, a small group of solicitors and other professionals became aware of the need for increased access to legal services in their area. Responding to this need, they joined together to launch a community Legal Centre in Toongabbie. The idea of setting up the Toongabbie Legal Centre was initiated by Susai Benjamin, a local solicitor, with a small meeting in Toongabbie during November 2005.

After a series of consultations, a committee was set up. This management committee conducted a Consultation within the community regarding the need for such a centre and the nature of the potential issues faced by those who might use such a centre.

The Mission of TLC is to provide legal assistance and advice to those in the Toongabbie, Blacktown and surrounding areas who are unable to seek the help of private lawyers, or who otherwise have difficulty in accessing legal services. TLC and its website was formally launched on 8 July 2011 by the then Federal Attorney General the Hon Robert McClelland MP.

TLC exercises its mission through Service in:

- Provision of legal advice and legal information
- Arranging referrals to other relevant bodies or to individual legal practices or other services
- Undertaking advocacy work in respect of policies and legislation relevant to the client group
- Contributing to law reform processes
- Providing community legal education and on-going consultation with local communities.

Typically clients include:

- Persons with financial constraints
- People from non-English speaking background
- Recently-arrived migrants, especially migrant women and children
- Refugees and those on humanitarian visas
- Needy youth and unemployed
- Those affected by issues related to employment and compensation
- Other vulnerable and disadvantaged persons who cannot obtain Legal Aid grant

Priority is given to clients from the target groups within the Toongabbie and surrounding suburbs.

Since 1 December 2011, TLC started its Outreach Legal Service in Blacktown, which functions on Thursdays and Saturdays. On 27 April 2012 this service was formally launched by Sir Gerard Brennan AC KBE, former Chief Justice of the High Court of Australia. Since 15 March 2014, the TLC's Outreach Legal Service was renamed as Blacktown Legal Centre (BLC).

Since the first formal induction and training for all volunteers held on 6 October 2007, TLC has held regular training, planning and development days each year for volunteers. A short induction program is held several times during the year for new volunteers.

Open on Thursdays (6pm-9pm) and Saturdays (9.00am-1pm). Drop-in service operates between 6.30 and 8.30pm on Thursdays, and between 9.30am and 12.30pm on Saturdays at the Hall next to St Anthony's Church, 27 Aurelia Street Toongabbie.

Blacktown Legal Centre (BLC) functions at 38 Prince Street (corner of First Avenue), Blacktown.

The Centres operate with the help of volunteers who are solicitors, migration agents, law students, social workers, financial planners and experts in finance, as well as IT specialists.
