

Why the law? Philosophical foundations of legal decision-making

Questions in Philosophy: Series 2

A series of thought-provoking talks for lawyers in the heart of Sydney

Expand your philosophical outlook by attending this challenging series of talks delivered by Dr Brendan Purcell, teacher, philosopher and author. Series 2 explores the philosophical foundations of Western law and the person at the heart of legal decision-making. Each session attracts 1 CPD point in the Ethics & Professional Responsibility strand.

Four consecutive Thursday evenings from 6pm to 7pm
18th & 25th October, 1st & 8th November 2018

Union University & Schools Club, 25 Bent St Sydney (corner of Bent and Phillip Streets, enter via Bent Street). Refreshments provided.

An initiative of the St Thomas More Society Sydney

$10 donation at the door Drop in for one or more sessions!