Law Society NSW

Training Room, level 3,

5.15pm Monday 20 April 2015

1.HOUR SEMINAR

1.CPD POINT IN THE
MANAGEMENT STRAND

The event will be jointly hosted by the Bar Association of NSW and the Law Society NSW.

This event is an ATO initiative which is part of its program to inform and assist practitioners in dealing with tax issues faced by their clients.

The seminar will cover the law and the “lore” of the Commissioner’s powers:

- What to expect when the ATO comes knocking
- What the Commissioner’s powers mean to you in the possession of your own or your client’s information
- How these powers apply to electronic communications and the storage of information on computer drives
- The meaning in this context of access to buildings or places
- Examples of particular situations the ATO has dealt with over a number of years
- Limits and exceptions to the powers
- Proposed amendments to consolidate the powers
- Recent changes to legislation to consolidate the powers.
