

Prosecution Adviser

- Located in Honiara, Solomon Islands
- Attractive international Remuneration Package

The Solomon Islands Partnership Facility (SIPF) provides support to the Australian aid program in Solomon Islands.

About the Role

The Prosecutions Adviser role will be to provide advice and guidance in relation to the practice management to ODPP (Office of the Director of Public Prosecution) prosecutors and staff to assist them with numerous tasks including but not limited to: implementation and streamlining a case management system, improvement of listing practices, and capacity development in a number of key areas by assisting with all aspects of staff preparation and conduct of prosecutions.

What We are Looking For

A Prosecutor with experience in prosecuting a range of criminal matters at trial, sentencing, and on appeal. Preferable experience includes experience with office and case management systems and procedures.

We expect you will have

- Experience in strengthening systems and processes in the legal practice management of criminal matters.
- Success in developing capacity of less experienced professionals, for example through knowledge sharing, mentoring and coaching and general management, including the development/delivery of legal training.
- Excellent interpersonal/communication skills and experience working in the public sector within a multi-cultural setting, including the ability to adapt to and deal with the limitations of a working environment which may have poor physical infrastructure and low capacity of staff.

What is being offered
