

FINN'S LAW: AN AUSTRALIAN JUSTICE

FRIDAY 25 SEPTEMBER 2015

PROGRAM
8.45 am	Registrations open
9.20–9.30 am	CONFERENCE OPENING
9.30–11 am	FIRST SESSION Ross Cranston , Judge of the High Court, Queen's Bench Division > A Legal Life Sarah Worthington , Downing Professor of the Laws of England, University of Cambridge > Fiduciary Obligations: Following Finn
11–11.30 am	Morning tea
11.30 am–1 pm	SECOND SESSION Pauline Ridge , Associate Professor, ANU College of Law > Participatory Liability and the Hallmarks of Australian Equity James Allsop , Chief Justice of the Federal Court of Australia > Fair Dealing, Conscience and Commerce: The Courts and Parliaments
1–2 pm	Lunch
2–3.30 pm	THIRD SESSION Stephen Gageler , Justice of the High Court of Australia > The Equitable Duty of Loyalty in Public Office Joshua Getzler , Professor of Law and Legal History, University of Oxford > Legal Personality and Capacity: Lessons from Legal History
3.30–4 pm	Afternoon tea
4–5.30 pm	FOURTH SESSION John Williams , Dean of Law, University of Adelaide > To What End?: Public Law and Public Power Michael Barker , Justice of the Federal Court of Australia > To Akiba and Beyond: A Short History of Native Title
5.30–5.40 pm	Conference close
5.45–6.45 pm	CONFERENCE DRINKS (National Library of Australia)
7 pm	CONFERENCE DINNER (The Lobby Restaurant, Parkes) Registered conference attendees only