STRAND

What is equitable briefing and why do we need it? Join Kate Eastman SC, Arthur Moses SC and Zoe Hillman in conversation about equitable briefing, and the recent report of the Equitable Briefing Working Party. The event will be Chaired by President of the Association, Jane Needham SC.

The event is intended to be an informal dialogue. The panel will discuss the recommendations contained in the report of the Equitable Briefing Working Party, and the importance of setting targets and creating a framework for reporting.

The discussion will also canvass suggestions made by solicitor members of the Working Party as to ways that barristers can more effectively market themselves, and grow their practices. Briefing equitably is not solely incumbent on solicitors, there are important ways that members of the bar can promote the policy as well.

THIS SEMINAR IS OPEN TO MEMBERS OF
