October 2015

1.5 HOUR SEMINAR
1.5 CPD POINTS IN THE
ETHICS/MANAGEMENT STRAND

From 1 October, plaintiffs' solicitors are going to be required to make disclosure to the MAA (now SIRA) of all solicitor/client costs charged to the client upon settlement, including counsel's fees. The MAA will be able to measure the net benefit a claimant receives from a settlement after all deductions including solicitor/client legal costs. The disclosure is mandatory.

Find out about the new Costs Disclosure regime. Why has it been introduced? What does it involve? What opportunity is there to explain why the costs incurred amounted to what they did? What use is the MAA/SIRA/ NSW government going to make of the data?"

THIS SEMINAR IS OPEN TO MEMBERS OF THE NSW
BAR ASSOCIATION

REGISTRATION IS NOT REQUIRED
