OSCAR HUNT TAILORS

Established in 2010 Oscar Hunt uses traditional methods to create your own distinct style. We are all about the relationship between tailor and client, working together to make sure each client becomes a suit connoisseur in his own right.

RAFFLE PRIZE: Oscar Hunt is delighted to present the winning bidder with the Oscar Hunt experience - A made-to-measure suit from our Huddersfield Cloth Linley collection. Your suit will be constructed over the course of three fittings where you will be expertly guided through the various styles, design options and finishings. Everything will be taken into account - a sloping shoulder, a larger cuff for an heirloom watch or a little extra room for a well-enjoyed holiday season. All of this takes place in the comfort of our showroom over a couple of drinks from the bar.

Silks

A Phillip St institution, Silks Coffee Lounge offers great coffee, quick and friendly service and fresh, tasty home-style meals.

Shoes of Prey is a website where you can design your own shoes.

The process is easy and fun: you choose the shape, colour and size of your shoes; we custom make them to your specifications and ship anywhere in the world in around four weeks.

The result: you'll never wish your shoes had a lower or higher heel, came in another colour, or had more or less embellishment. You'll never see the same pair on anyone else. And you'll never walk home with your heels in your hands again.

Your design. Your size. Your perfect shoes.

Various fine wines have been donated as RAFFLE PRIZES including:

1 x Centenary of Federation Magnum, donated by Andrew Stone SC

Back in 2000, Each of Australia's then 61 wine regions contributed 225 litres of 'premium red' from the 1999 vintage to create a red wine blended by Len Evans, Brian Croser, John Hanley and Ian McKenzie. This became the Centenary of Federation blend. A large number of magnums were produced with the intent to raise $10 million for the National Wine Foundation. Dividends were then to be directed to community organisations and nominated projects in line with the Foundation's charter. The wine was also to be presented as a gift to the Heads of State throughout the world and at all Commonwealth celebrations throughout 2001.

1 x bottle donated by Kara Shead SC
