

NEW SOUTH WALES
BAR ASSOCIATION

A History Of Australian Legal Education

Presented by:

*David Barker AM, Emeritus
Professor of Law at UTS*

Chair:

TBC

NSW Bar Association
Common Room

5.15pm Wednesday

11 November 2015

1.5 HOUR SEMINAR
1.5 CPD POINTS IN THE
SUBSTANTIVE LAW STRAND

This presentation relates to the study of the history and structural development of legal education in Australia by tracing the establishment of university law schools and other forms of legal education throughout the Australian states and territories from the time of European settlement in 1788 until the present day.

David Barker AM, is Emeritus Professor of Law at UTS & a full-time PhD Student at Macquarie University. He is Secretary and a Foundation Fellow of the Australian Academy of Law, Secretary of the Australasian Law Teachers Association (ALTA) and Editor of the Legal Education Digest.

THIS SEMINAR IS OPEN TO MEMBERS AND FRIENDS OF THE FRANCIS FORBES SOCIETY FOR LEGAL HISTORY

REGISTRATION IS NOT REQUIRED

For more information, please contact Bali Kaur
bkaur@nswbar.asn.au OR (02) 9229 1722

NSW Bar Association
Selborne Chambers, B/174 Phillip Street, Sydney

cpd Continuing Professional Development

The Francis Forbes Society
For Australian Legal History