Join family court judges, Federal Circuit Court judges, expert presenters and other practitioners to start 2016 by expanding your understanding of family law. This year's program covers a range of topics designed to help provide participants with a practical overview of the highly specialised and topical issues in family law.

Special presentations Topics include: surrogacy, ice, mental health and family law, enforcement proceedings, interlocutory hearings, ethics, complaints and improving cost recovery, the latest and greatest and more.

Registration includes:

- Attendance at all conference sessions
- Parliament House tour
- Morning and afternoon tea during the conference
- Welcome reception (drinks) on Thursday 21 January
- Working lunch on Friday 22 January
- Conference materials

CPD Points Earn 10 CPD points and cover all the competencies.

Name badges Your badge allows you to access all sessions of your registration, morning/afternoon tea and lunch. Please ensure your name badge is visible at all times.

Dress code The dress code for the conference and drinks is Territory informal (smart casual, colourful clothing is welcomed).

Climate Temperatures average from 25–32°C during the month of January with rain very possible.

Parking All parking throughout the Darwin CBD is controlled by parking meters. Costs range between $1.30 and $2.50 per hour; higher rates are charged within zones closest to the CBD.

West Lane multi-storey car park is at the rear of Hilton Darwin (close to Parliament House). The maximum daily charge is $13.50. For further information on parking, please go to www.darwin.nt.gov.au
