ALSA SURFAID BREAKFAST WITH THE STARS

Felipe Pomar, Sunset Beach, 1972

Joey Cabell, Duke Kahanamoku and Felipe Pomar, 1965

The Australasian Lawyers Surfing Association (ALSA) is delighted to welcome Felipe Pomar and his Peruvian entourage to our inaugural “SurfAid breakfast with the Stars”.

Felipe, big wave surfer, became the second world champion in 1965, a year after our own Midget Farrelly took out the first title. Still charging at 72, Felipe is now famous as an international environmentalist and still the only man alive who has actually ridden a tsunami! So join us for the best excuse to wear your Hawaiian shirt under your suit whilst Felipe entertains us with classic tales from the past 50 years of surfing. To satisfy your indulgence, other surfing luminaries will also be in attendance. Numbers are strictly limited. There will also be a silent auction of a few signed classic big wave photos of Felipe and friends. So don't miss out. Book your tickets today!
