1.5 HOUR SEMINAR

SUBSTANTIVE LAW STRAND

There are difficulties that can arise in making sure that Aboriginal children in care and family law proceedings can learn and enjoy their culture. Culture is ontological, and must be an everyday lived experience. The speakers will explore ways to ensure that Aboriginal children in care and family law proceedings are still able to grow up in, and benefit from, their culture, and will discuss particularly the preparation of cultural plans, which can complement care plans drafted by the Department of Family and Community Services.

This seminar has been organised by the NSW Bar Association's Indigenous Barrister's Strategy Working Party, Ngalaya, the professional association of Indigenous lawyers & law students and the NSW Law Society's Indigenous Issues Committee.

THIS SEMINAR IS OPEN TO MEMBERS OF THE NSW
BAR ASSOCIATION AND THE LAW SOCIETY OF NSW

REGISTRATION IS NOT REQUIRED
