

CROWN ADVOCATE

- Senior leadership role in the Crown Solicitor's Office
- Responsible for conducting the State's major trials

The Crown Solicitor's Office is seeking an experienced trial and litigation lawyer to fill the role of Crown Advocate. The role is responsible for conducting the State's major civil and commercial trials and undertaking appellate work.

The Crown Advocate provides high quality and timely legal advice and representation to Government and CSO client agencies. Reporting directly to the Crown Solicitor, the Crown Advocate leads the Crown Counsel Section and is a member of the CSO executive team.

The successful applicant must have a proven record as counsel in complex matters at trial and appellate level and be able to deliver efficient and effective legal services.

Applications should be directed to Attorney-General's Department Chief Executive, Mr Rick Persse, by close of business, 23 June 2014. GPO Box 464, ADELAIDE SA 5001.

For more information about this role please contact Ms Caroline Mealor, Deputy Chief Executive on (08) 8207 1952 or download a role description at <http://www.agd.sa.gov.au/crown-advocate>