When Norton Asper, an architect at the top of his profession, forms a relationship with an exceptionally talented, radically alternative young interior designer, his friends are surprised. When she and her lover are murdered and he is found stunned and blood-stained at the scene, the police believe he is the killer. He will say nothing to anyone about his involvement. His silence is of deep concern. His lawyers need to know what has happened ...

The Hon. Ian Callinan AC is a former Justice of the High Court of Australia, where he served for almost ten years. Before that he was a leading QC with a national reputation.

He has had eight novels published and five plays produced. He is presently an International Court of Justice Judge Ad Hoc.
