

Are you passionate about the law ?

Interested in a career in advocacy ?

Ever wondered what a barrister does, and whether you might like to be one ?

NEW SOUTH WALES
BAR ASSOCIATION®

DON'T MISS THE NSW BAR ASSOCIATION'S ONLINE OPEN DAY FOR FEMALE LAW STUDENTS 2020

The NSW Bar Association is pleased to invite female law students in their penultimate and final years of study to our annual Open Day, hosted by the Association's Diversity & Equality Committee and Women Barristers Forum, on Tuesday, 4 August 2020, 8.30-10.30am

While this year's Open Day will take place online due to COVID-19, students will still have unprecedented access to successful women barristers and judges, as well as the opportunity to ask and hear about what a career at the Bar is really like.

What the 2020 Online Open Day looks like:

8:15 am	Online conference facilities open
8:30 – 8:35 am	Welcome by Kate Eastman SC, Chair of the NSW Bar Association Diversity & Equality Committee
8:35 – 9:30 am	Panel discussion with: -the Honorable Justice Markovic of the Federal Court of Australia -the Honourable Justice Williams of the Supreme Court of NSW -Gabrielle Bashir SC, Junior Vice President of the NSW Bar Association, of Forbes Chambers -Natasha Case of Alinea Chambers
9:30 – 10:30 am	Break out sessions with barristers

Register here by 21 July 2020 to secure your spot!