

Crown Prosecutor

$303,450 p.a. plus Conveyance Allowance $17,090 p.a.

The Attorney General is calling for expressions of interest from qualified persons for appointment as Crown Prosecutors under the Crown Prosecutors Act 1986 for a fixed term of up to seven years that may be renewed following an initial twelve-month probationary period.

Crown Prosecutors represent the Director of Public Prosecutions in providing an independent, efficient, fair and just prosecution service for the people of New South Wales. They provide high-level, independent professional representation and advice as Counsel representing the Director in criminal matters in all Criminal Courts.

The positions could be based at various locations around the State, with the successful applicants required to attend regional courts as directed.

Interested persons must be Australian lawyers. The key skills and knowledge required for the role are outlined in the online role description and must be addressed in the online application. In particular, applicants should outline their experience in conducting complex jury trials and/or appeals.

Note: Probity checks will be conducted.

Applications in Word or PDF, accompanied by a detailed curriculum vitae and the names of at least two referees, must be completed online.

Applications close: Monday 26 July 2021 at 11.59 pm.
