

Eric BalodisCrown Prosecutors Chambers – Sydney

Eric began practising at the NSW Bar on 24 February 2002. His practice is in criminal law. Before coming to the Bar in NSW, Eric was admitted as a barrister and solicitor of the Supreme Court of Western Australia and worked in the Crown Solicitor's Office, the Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions in Perth and on circuit throughout the state in the District and State Courts. In 2002, he joined the Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions in New South Wales as a Crown Prosecutor and was appointed Deputy Senior Crown Prosecutor in 2023. Eric has been a member of a Professional Conduct Committee.

[BJuris, LLB (Western Australia)]

Lyndelle BarnettLevel 22 Chambers

Lyndelle began practising at the NSW Bar on 3 May 2010. Her practice area is media and defamation. Before coming to the Bar, Lyndelle worked as a solicitor at Cropper Parkhill Solicitors and then at Blake Dawson (now Ashurst) where she developed a practice in media, defamation, and intellectual property. Lyndelle has been a member of the NSW Bar Association Media and Information Law and Technology Committee and the Bar News Committee. Lyndelle is a member of the Federal Court's Defamation User Group. In 2009 she was awarded the Blashki Award for the highest aggregate mark in the NSW Bar Exams.

[LLB (Hons) (UTS)]

Victoria Brigden8th Floor Selborne Chambers

Victoria began practising at the NSW Bar on 3 May 2010. Her practice area is in commercial law with an emphasis on civil regulatory matters. Before coming to the Bar, Victoria practised as a solicitor at Corrs Chambers Westgarth primarily in commercial litigation. Victoria is a member of the Bar News Committee and a member of a Professional Conduct Committee.

[BA Communications (Journalism) LLB (Hons), (UTS), LLM, (Sydney)]

Joanna DavidsonSixth Floor Selborne/Wentworth Chambers

Joanna began practising at the NSW Bar on 30 January 2012. Her practice is in administrative law and constitutional law. Before coming to the Bar, Joanna was Research Director and Tipstaff to the Honourable James Spigelman AC KC (then Chief Justice of the Supreme Court), solicitor at King & Wood Mallesons, Associate at Debevoise & Plimpton LLB in New York, solicitor assisting the Special Commission of Inquiry into the NSW Crime Commission and Senior Solicitor at the NSW Crown Solicitor's Office. Joanna has been on several committees, most recently the Inquests and Inquiries Committee. She is a current member of the Board of Anti-Discrimination New South Wales, a member of the Council of Abbotsleigh School and was a director of the Inner-City Legal Centre.

[BA (Hons), LLB, (UNSW), LLM, (Harvard)]

Scott FraserPublic Defenders Chambers

Scott began practising at the NSW Bar on 6 October 2009. His practice is in criminal law. Before coming to the Bar, Scott worked as a solicitor at Legal Aid in Wollongong, then in Sydney. Scott was appointed a Public Defender in 2018, commencing in Wollongong, and in 2024 became a Sydney based Public Defender. Scott has previously been a member of the Criminal Law Committee and is currently a member and Deputy Chair of the Legal Aid Committee.

[LLB, BCom (Wollongong)]

Adam Hochroth

Banco Chambers

Adam began practising at the NSW Bar on 30 April 2012. His practice areas are commercial law and public and administrative law, particularly migration matters. Before coming to the Bar, Adam worked as a solicitor for Freehills (now Herbert Smith Freehills Kramer) practising in employment law and commercial litigation before being seconded to the Shopfront Youth Legal Centre. Adam has been a participant in the Duty Barrister Scheme for thirteen years and has a strong commitment to pro bono work.

[BA (Hons), LLB (UNSW), LLM (Columbia)]

David Hughes

7 Wentworth Selborne

David began practising at the NSW Bar on 3 May 2010. His practice area is in commercial causes, in particular in disputes involving significant contracts. Before coming to the NSW Bar, David was Research Director and Tipstaff for the Honourable James Spigelman AC KC (then Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. While in England, David met now Lord Justice of Appeal Sir Kim Lewison with whom he wrote The Interpretation of Contracts in Australia.

[LLB, B Sc (Pure Mathematics, Hons) (UNSW), BCL (Oxford)]

David Hume

Sixth Floor Selborne/Wentworth Chambers

David began practising at the NSW Bar on 26 August 2013. His practice areas are public law, construction and infrastructure law and taxation law. Before coming to the Bar, David worked as an associate to the Honourable AM Gleeson AC QC (then Chief Justice of the High Court of Australia). David worked as a solicitor at Freehills (now Herbert Smith Freehills Kramer) and as a solicitor in the Constitutional Litigation Unit of the Australian Government Solicitor. David has co-authored three books on Australian Constitutional Law: People Power: History and Future of the Referendum in Australia, Human Rights under the Australian Constitution and People Power: How Australian Referendums are Lost and Won.

[BA (Hons), LLB (UNSW), LLM(Harvard)]

Elliot Hyde

Banco Chambers

Elliot began practising at the NSW Bar on 2 May 2005. His practice area is commercial litigation and dispute resolution. Before coming to the Bar, Elliot was a solicitor and then Senior Associate at Deacons (now Norton Rose Fulbright) and Minter Ellison. Elliot is an advocacy instructor for the NSW Bar Association and has assisted with the Bar Practice Course via mock trials.

[LLB, BBus (UTS), LLM (Sydney)]

Oliver Jones

Eleven Wentworth

Oliver began practising at the NSW Bar on 4 March 2019. His practice areas are commercial and corporate law, administrative and constitutional law, international law, and sports law. Before coming to the NSW Bar, Oliver practised as a member of the Bar in London from 2009 where he joined Brick Court Chambers.

Oliver is a member of a Professional Conduct Committee and has been a member of the Human Rights Committee.

[B Civil Law (Dist) (Oxford), BA LLB (Hons) (Sydney)]

Bora Kaplan

9th Floor Wentworth Chambers

Bora began practising at the NSW Bar on 3 May 2010. His practice is in public law in administrative and constitutional law and commercial law. Before coming to the Bar, Bora was tipstaff to the Hon Justice David Ipp AO of the New South Wales Court of Appeal, and then a solicitor at Mallesons Stephen Jacques (now King & Wood Mallesons). Bora is a member of the Human Rights Committee and Costs and Fees Committee.

[BA, LLB (Hons) (Sydney), BCL (Oxford)]

Daniel Klineberg

8th Floor Selborne Chambers

Daniel began practising at the NSW Bar on 4 September 2009. His practice areas are commercial law, equity, corporations law, and dust diseases cases. Before coming to the Bar Daniel worked as tipstaff and research director to the Honourable James Spigelman AC KC (then Chief Justice of the Supreme Court) and later as a lecturer in the Faculty of Law at the University of New South Wales. He also practised as a solicitor at Freehills (now Herbert Smith Freehills Kramer). Daniel undertook postgraduate studies at the University of Oxford and then practised as a solicitor at Slaughter and May, London. He is a member and Deputy Chair of the Bar News Committee, a member of the Wellbeing Committee, and has been on the New Barristers Committee and a Professional Conduct Committee.

[BCL (Oxford), LLB (Hons) (UNSW) BSc (Anatomy) (UNSW)]

Peter Lange

Maurice Byers Chambers

Peter began practising at the NSW Bar on 14 March 2002. His practice is in criminal law. Before coming to the Bar, Peter was admitted to the Bar of New York State and practised as an attorney-at-law in both US State and Federal courts. He has practised at the Bar in London at Great James Street Chambers. Since 2002, Peter has practised on his own account as a foreign lawyer in Munich, Germany. He has been a member of the NSW Bar Criminal Committee and has participated in the Bar Association's Mentoring Programme.

[Juris Dr, BSc (Computer Engineering) (Columbia), BCL (Oxford), LLB (London), LLM (LMU Munich)]

Brendan Lim

Eleven Wentworth

Brendan began practising at the NSW Bar on 31 March 2014. His practice is in public and commercial law. Before coming to the Bar, Brendan worked as Counsel Assisting the Solicitor General of the Commonwealth, after associateships with the Honourable Anthony Besanko KC (then Judge of the Federal Court) and the Honourable Chief Justice Stephen Gageler AC (then justice of the High Court). Brendan is a member of a Professional Conduct Committee and has been on the NSW Bar Association's Diversity and Equality Committee.

[LLB (Hons), BMus (Hons), BMa & Comp Sc, (Adelaide), LLM/JSD, (Yale)]

Scott MayburyJack Shand Chambers

Scott began practising at the NSW Bar on 9 August 2004. His practice areas are personal injury litigation, insurance law, medical negligence, and professional disciplinary law. Scott has been a member of a Professional Conduct Committee, a marker and facilitator for the NSW Bar Exams and Bar Practice Course.

[LLB (UWS), GradDipL, LLM (UTS)]

Daniel NeggoUniversity Chambers

Daniel began practising at the NSW Bar on 4 May 2009 at Blackstone Chambers, then 153 Phillip Barristers before joining University Chambers in 2018. Daniel has a broad commercial practice. He is a member of the Costs and Fees Committee.

[LLB, LLM (UNSW)]

Elizabeth NicholsonCrown Prosecutors Chambers – Sydney

Elizabeth began practising at the NSW Bar on 29 April 2013 at Sir Owen Dixon Chambers before being appointed as a Crown Prosecutor in July 2018. Elizabeth was appointed as an Acting Deputy Senior Crown Prosecutor in 2024. Before coming to the Bar, she worked as a solicitor at Harris & Company, at the Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions (NSW) based in Wagga Wagga and then at Legal Aid NSW. Elizabeth is a member of the Criminal Law Committee and, during her time as a member of the Bar News Committee, she had a regular column “With My Own Two Hands” which highlighted the positive contributions being made to society by members of the NSW Bar. Elizabeth is a member of Diverse Women in Law, the Crown Prosecutors’ CPD Committee and a mentor in the ODPP First Nations Mentoring Program.

[BA, LLB (Hons), (Macquarie)]

Tom QuilterPublic Defenders Chambers.

Tom began practising at the NSW Bar on 26 August 2013 at Sir Owen Dixon Chambers and was appointed a Public Defender in 2013. His practice area is criminal law. Before coming to the Bar, Tom worked as a solicitor for Aboriginal Legal Services in Wagga Wagga, Dubbo, and Redfern. Tom is currently updating editor of two publications on the law of evidence.

[BA, LLB (Sydney)]

Julia RoySixth Floor Selborne/Wentworth Chambers

Julia began practising at the NSW Bar on 11 April 2013. Julia’s areas of practice are criminal law, commercial law, competition law and public law. Before coming to the Bar, she worked as Tipstaff and then Research Director to the Honourable Tom Bathurst AC KC (then Chief Justice of the Supreme Court), and as Tipstaff to the Honourable David Hodgson AC QC (then judge of the Supreme Court). Julia has been a member of a Professional Conduct Committee and an Education Subcommittee. She is currently a member of the Advisory Board for the Centre for the Future of the Legal Profession at the UNSW Faculty of Law and Justice.

[BA, LLB (UNSW)]

Joanne Shepard12 Wentworth Selborne Chambers

Joanne began practising at the NSW Bar on 1 May 2006. Her practice is in insolvency and financial regulatory matters. Before coming to the Bar, Joanne worked as a solicitor in insolvency and litigation at Ashurst (formerly Blake Dawson Waldron) and then at Herbert Smith Freehills Kramer (formerly Freehills). Joanne was the Chair of the New Barristers Committee from 2011 to 2012 and later served on the Education Committee. Since 2017, Joanne has written a regular column for Bar News which aims to promote different perspectives of the greater Bar and, in particular, female perspectives. Joanne has previously provided mentoring to university students via the UTS Law Advocates Mentoring Programme, the UNSW Women's Law mentoring programme, and the Career Compass Mentoring Programme.

[BEc, LLB (Hons) (Sydney)]

Turvey ToSir Anthony Mason Chambers

Turvey began practising at the NSW Bar on 16 February 2004. His practice areas are environmental planning law, local government law, land valuation and compensation for the compulsory acquisition of interests in land. Before coming to the Bar, Turvey worked as a solicitor at Dunhill Madden Butler and then PricewaterhouseCoopers Legal. Turvey has been a member of the Wellbeing Committee.

[BEc, LLB, Masters (Environ and Local Govt Law) (Macquarie)]

Daniel Tynan12 Wentworth Selborne Chambers

Daniel began practising at the NSW Bar on 2 June 2008. His practice is in competition and consumer law and he specialises in money laundering and proceeds of crime matters. Before coming to the Bar, Daniel was a Senior Lawyer at the Australian Government Solicitor and an Associate at Clayton Utz Lawyers. He was the Senior Legal Adviser to the Honourable Robert McClelland AO, when His Honour was Commonwealth Attorney-General. Daniel was also Associate to the Honourable Rodney Madgwick KC, then judge of the Federal Court. Daniel is on the Bar News Committee and has been a member of the Wellbeing Committee and the Bar Examination Working Party.

[BSc (Hons) LLB (UNSW), LLM (Cambridge)]

David Weinberger9th Floor Wentworth Chambers

David began practising at the NSW Bar on 25 February 2000. His practice areas are commercial law, commercial insurance litigation and building and construction/infrastructure litigation. Before coming to the Bar, David practised as a solicitor. He is a member of the Supreme Court of NSW Equity Division Consultation Group.

[DipLaw (LPAB)]