

Join us for an evening with Mark Tedeschi AM KC

Barrister, author, photographer and former Senior Crown Prosecutor for NSW

You are warmly invited to join Mark Tedeschi AM KC and Kim Tao, Head of Curatorial & Research at Museums of History NSW, for an evening in-conversation about Mark's extraordinary career across law, literature and photography.

Over a distinguished 35-year career, Mark prosecuted many of NSW's most high-profile and complex cases, serving as the state's Senior Crown Prosecutor until 2018. Together, we'll step inside his remarkable career, hearing reflections from the courtroom and insights from Mark's work as a photographer, author and researcher, drawing on the collections of the Justice & Police Museum.

The evening will also mark the beginning of a bold new chapter for the Justice & Police Museum, as Professor the Hon Bob Carr, Chair of Museums of History NSW, launches our 2025–26 Annual Giving campaign and the first stage of the museum's transformation – a striking new interpretation of the Water Police Station holding cells, reimagined for the first time in more than two decades.

We look forward to your company as we explore Mark Tedeschi's achievements and unveil this exciting new era for the Justice & Police Museum.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Annette Pitman'.

Annette Pitman

Chief Executive Officer, Museums of History NSW

Wednesday 26 November 2025

Drinks: 5pm–6pm

In conversation: 6pm–7pm

RSVP by 17 November 2025

Meagan Evans,

Philanthropy Manager

meagan.evans@mhnsw.au

Location

Justice & Police Museum, Cnr

Albert and Phillip streets, Sydney

Justice & Police Museum. Photo © James Horan for Museums of History NSW

Museums of History NSW cares for, and provides access to, significant historic places, collections and archives in NSW and is responsible for promoting knowledge and appreciation of history. It is a statutory body, principally funded by the NSW Government.