

LAWCONNEXION

Scale Your Practice To New Heights In 2023

Brian Lee, former Senior Clerk at 20 Essex Chambers in London together with Nicole O'Hare, Managing Director and Founder of LawConnexion, are delivering two Masterclasses for barristers interested in practice growth, relationship building and better brand recognition.

In March 2023, learn about Mastering Solicitor Client Relationships and in April 2023, discover The Art of Rainmaking and Strategic Networking in the Post Pandemic World.

These Masterclasses are designed for barristers wanting to implement contemporary techniques successfully being used globally and will address growing barristers' practices locally and overseas.

Barristers attending these Masterclasses will benefit from the collective specialised knowledge and experience of Brian and Nicole who have worked for many years with barristers across Australia, the United Kingdom, Singapore and the Asia-Pacific region.

Brian is also a former Chair of the Institute of Barristers' Clerks in the United Kingdom, and Nicole is a former solicitor, and has been giving strategic advice to, and promoting, Australian barristers for a decade as LawConnexion celebrates its 10th year in business.
