STORYTELLING & SOCIAL JUSTICE

In conversation with
Suzie Miller

On behalf of the Public Interest Advocacy Centre, I am very pleased to invite you to a special evening with internationally renowned playwright Suzie Miller, in conversation with writer Nicole Abadee.

Wednesday 9 November 2022

5.30pm – 7pm

The Lobby, 60 Martin Place, Sydney

Drinks and canapés will be served

Suzie's recent work includes the multi award-winning *Prima Facie*, a powerful critique of the justice system's treatment of people who have experienced sexual assault. Later this month, the Sydney Theatre Company will bring Suzie's latest work *RBG: Of Many, One* to the stage, illuminating the life of US legal legend Ruth Bader Ginsburg.

We are delighted that Suzie – whose previous legal career included work with PIAC – has agreed to speak about her writing and the relationship between storytelling and social justice.

I hope that you can join us for what promises to be a very memorable evening, generously hosted by Banco Chambers.

The event is free to attend, but invitation-only and capacity is limited.

RSVP to reserve your ticket

With best wishes

Jonathon Hunyor
CEO, Public Interest Advocacy Centre

Speakers

Suzie Miller

Suzie Miller is a contemporary award winning playwright and screenwriter drawn to complex human stories often exploring injustice. Her plays have been produced in 40 productions around the world. Her play PRIMA FACIE has enjoyed extraordinary acclaim, marking Suzie's West End debut. Starring Jodie Comer, it is currently the highest grossing NTLive production screened in the UK. Prima Facie will transfer to Broadway in 2023.
