Workshop for Female Barristers

Grow | Protect | Operate | Finance

Dentons is delighted to host an Equitable Briefing Workshop for early-career female barristers on Wednesday, 30 October in Sydney. This is an event for legal professionals to come together for an evening of professional development and networking. Workshops on the evening will include Marketing yourself as a Junior Barrister and Preparing for and surviving life at the Bar, followed by drinks and canapes.

Guests will also hear from The Hon Jane Needham and Zali Steggall OAM MP on the evening. Both are strong advocates for women in the law, and will share their own valuable insights for early career professionals as they prepare to navigate life at the bar. Places are limited, and RSVPs are essential.
