1 HOUR SEMINAR
1 CPD POINT IN THE SUBSTANTIVE LAW,
PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE, AND
EVIDENCE STRAND

In both parenting and financial litigation in courts exercising family law jurisdiction one (or maybe both) of the parties whose relationship has broken down are simultaneously facing criminal charges or the threat of the same. The evidence may be the same but the procedure and consequences may be vastly different. Navigating the pathway requires some cross-jurisdictional gymnastics and cooperation between practitioners in two specialists jurisdictions. Presenters Suzanne Christie SC and April Francis will discuss some of the issues which arise.

This seminar has been organised by the Family Law Committee of the NSW Bar Association.
