WITH SO MANY THINGS TO DO, SEE AND EAT IN QUEENSTOWN, WHAT ARE YOU WAITING FOR?

Not satisfied with just skiing? In addition to the excellent conference program (which includes sessions relevant to Commercial Law, Criminal Law and Public Law practitioners) conference organisers have curated a selection of fantastic outdoor activities for delegates and accompanying persons. Form meaningful relationships with barristers, solicitors, judges and other professionals and you cycle and sip pinot or zip down the steepest zipline in the world!

Lake Cruise & Mt Nicholas Experience

Covering 100,000 acres of high country, Mt. Nicholas provides 360 degree views to Mt Earnslaw, Glenorchy and the Remarkables. The working station offers a truly Kiwi experience with its 30,000 merino sheep and 3,000 cattle.

Included:

- » Exclusive return transfer on 'Queenstown Discovery' boat
- » 4WD coach tour of the station's best views
- » A private tour of the animals and working woolshed
- » Wild Earth gourmet experience – showcasing the very best in fresh NZ cuisine prepared in renowned French Oak Pinot Noir wine barrel cookers and carefully matched selection of Wild Earth wines.

Glenorchy Experience

Getting there is an unforgettable experience, as you travel in a land cruiser with a local guide and experience some of NZ's best scenery and stop at picture perfect locations.

Visit New Zealand's first Net Zero Energy accommodation provider: Camp Glenorchy. It is part of an inspiring revitalization of classic camping, cabins and group gatherings and retreats. Experience a behind the scenes tour of this creative and innovative designed project and learn about its recycled and reclaimed materials and international and local artist installations.

Included:

- » Gourmet packed lunch from the hotel for you to enjoy before your activity
- » Transfers and local guide providing commentary along the way
- » Photo stops at picture perfect locations
- » A private tour of Camp Glenorchy
- » Hot afternoon tea at Mrs Wolleys – old fashioned soup and gourmet toasted sandwiches
