

THE LAW SOCIETY OF NEW SOUTH WALES
youngLAWYERS

THE FUTURE OF INTERNATIONAL DISPUTE SETTLEMENT

THURSDAY, 27 JUNE 2019
1:00PM - 6.30PM
LUNA PARK, SYDNEY

4.5 hours CPD available

Click here to register

Afternoon tea will be provided, with drinks and canapés to follow.

THE FUTURE OF INTERNATIONAL DISPUTE SETTLEMENT

Luna Park, 27 June 2019

Program

THE LAW SOCIETY OF NEW SOUTH WALES
youngLAWYERS

- 1.00pm Registration Opens
- 1.15pm Welcome:
- Professor Natalie Klein, UNSW Sydney and Vice-President of the International Law Association (Australian Branch)
- Katlyn Kraus, New South Wales Young Lawyers – International Law Committee
- 1.30-2.55pm Panel One: Future Prospects of International Courts
- Chair: Damian Sturzaker, Marque Lawyers
- Speakers:
- | | | |
|--|--|---|
| A/Professor Douglas Guilfoyle UNSW Canberra Lacking Conviction: Is the International Criminal Court broken? | Callista Harris University of Sydney The ICJ's Advisory Function and Contentious Disputes: Looking to the Future after Chagos | Professor Natalie Klein UNSW Sydney Powerful States and International Courts |
|--|--|---|
- 2.55-3.05pm Amenities break
- 3.05-4.30pm Panel Two: Future of Climate Change Litigation
- Chair: The Hon. Justice Nicola Pain, NSW Land and Environment Court
- Speakers:
- | | | |
|--|---|--|
| Martijn Wilder AM Baker McKenzie Transnational Perspectives on Climate Litigation | Professor Tim Stephens University of Sydney The Prospects for Climate Litigation in the International Court of Justice | Professor Shirley Scott UNSW Canberra Would it be Useful for the UN Security Council to Establish a Climate Change Court or Tribunal? |
|--|---|--|
- 4.30-5.00pm Afternoon Tea break
- 5.00-6.30pm Panel Three: Future of Trade, Investment & International Commercial Arbitration Disputes
- Chair: Marina Kofman, Norton Rose Fulbright
- Speakers:
- | | | |
|---|--|---|
| Dr Weihuan Zhou UNSW Sydney The Future of the WTO Dispute Settlement Mechanism | Professor Chester Brown University of Sydney Should Investor-State Dispute Settlement Be Reformed? A Review of the Developments in UNCITRAL's Working Group III | Leon Chung Herbert Smith Freehills International Commercial Arbitration in Australia – the Current State of Play |
|---|--|---|
- 6.30-7.30pm Drinks and Canapés