The John Lehane Memorial Lecture

Please join us for the John Lehane Memorial Lecture.

Lord Sales, a Justice of the Supreme Court of the United Kingdom, will speak on the topic 'The interface between contract and equity'.

John Lehane made a significant contribution to the study and practice of law in Australia. He was a leading banking law partner of Allen Allen & Hemsley and, ultimately, chairman. In 1995, he was appointed to the Federal Court of Australia, where he served with distinction until 2001. John Lehane lectured in law at the University of Sydney for many years and co-authored Australia's leading text on equity.
